

Highness classes and coding

Daniel Turetsky

Victoria University of Wellington dan.turetsky@vuw.ac.nz

What can be coded into the descending sequences of a linear order? Into the automorphisms of a structure? Into the jump-structures on a pseudo-ordinal? These are all  $\Sigma_1^1$  classes, but are they interchangeable? This relates to the counterintuitive fact that sometimes it can be easier to find an object than to know whether or not it exists.